MISS CLAIRE RILEY SPEAKS AT WOMANS CLUB IN ROCHESTER

The open meeting on Monday evening at the Rochester Woman's Club was very well attended by members and guests who assembled to hear Miss Claire N. Riley, who spoke on "Cooks and Books". She gave a very entertaining review on the history of cooking and chefs from cave man to modern times and quoted philosophy and observations from some of the very old cook books along with accounts of exotic and unusual receipes that were considered delicacies in early times but which would hardly appeal to modern appetites. Some of the latest cook books mentioned were those on deep frying, barbecue, teen-age cookery and one on "Solving the High Cost of Living". There is even a cook book on various ways of serving hash (if anyone is interested) and some have been published for people with problems of cardiac, ulcers and diabetic conditions. Miss Riley is librarian at Normandin Junior High School.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Everett L. Hardy reported for the Teachers' Reception Committee. Representatives on this committee from the Woman's Club were Mrs. Abraham Jackson and Miss Adele Croker, Mrs. David Fearing and Mrs. Roger Wood. Committees from the P.T.A. and Rochester Grange cooperated to arrange for the recent teachers' reception held at the Consolidated School.

Announcement was made of the Fall meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at the War Memorial Building in Holyoke, Mass., on October 16th. Anyone who is interested in attending should get in touch with the secretary, Mrs. David Fearing.
